

20 January 2017

Tax Trainee

KSi Faulkner Orr is a long established firm of accountants and taxations advisers based in the heart of Dublin.

We are currently seeking to recruit a tax trainee who is looking to complete a training contract with the Irish Tax Institute.

Salary is negotiable.

The position of Tax Trainee involves

- learning and implementing the skills to perform routine tax compliance such as Payroll and VAT returns.
- preparing Income Tax returns and becoming familiar with a diverse range of tax clients
- assisting the Audit department with Corporation Tax compliance
- as your learning develops, advising clients on a wide variety of taxation matters

Training

Other than on-the-job training, the office provides:

- funding for professional taxation education and study leave.

Applicants Qualifications:

- Looking to pursue a career in the area of taxation
- Strong problem solving skills, with excellent verbal and written communication abilities
- Has attention to detail while maintaining the ability to work to a tight deadline

Please send your application by cover letter with accompanying CV to Naomi Butler, KSi Faulkner Orr, Gateway House, 133 Capel Street, Dublin 1, by email to naomi@ksifo.ie