

Tax Senior

Location: Cork

Function: Tax

Entry Route: Experienced

Position Type: Permanent

The role:

We are looking to recruit a Tax Senior. This is an excellent opportunity for an ambitious and driven candidate who is keen to progress within the firm. The position offers excellent prospects for progression and on-going career development. You will be self-motivated, capable of working on your own initiative and have the ability to plan, control and complete tax compliance engagements.

Main responsibilities:

- assisting in the management of a mixed portfolio of clients;
- working as a member of the tax compliance team, the main area of responsibility will be to draft income and corporation tax returns in accordance with Irish tax legislation and company law requirements;
- providing timely and accurate information to clients on ongoing personal tax issues;
- identifying tax planning opportunities;
- research in relation to client taxation issues; and
- various ad hoc duties and responsibilities as directed by management.

Skills and attributes:

- minimum 3 years' experience required;
- qualified AITI;
- 1-2 years post qualified experience in practice;
- a thorough knowledge of personal tax and relevant legislation;
- confidence in dealing with people (including clients), excellent interpersonal and communication skills;
- self-starter with ability to use initiative and to prioritise with excellent time management skills; and
- good attention to detail.

Apply here:

<https://candidate.hrmanager.net/ApplicationForm/SinglePageApplicationForm.aspx?cid=360&departmentId=11747&ProjectId=187277&MediaId=5>