

Tax/Legal Intern

Ronan Daly Jermyn one of the leading Irish law firms is currently seeking a tax/legal intern (on a paid basis) with an interest in pursuing a career in tax for an initial period of six months commencing immediately. The Intern will be based in the Dublin office of the firm in the IFSC as part of a specialist tax advisory and tax litigation team.

Ideally, candidates will have taken tax/accounting and law as core subjects in their degree. Candidates should be computer literate and be proficient in Microsoft Word, Excel and Powerpoint.

Candidates are asked to send a covering letter and CV to Julie Burke, Tax Partner julie.burke@rdj.ie. The covering letter should detail why the candidate should be considered for this position and the CV must include grades achieved by the candidate in all subjects taken for their degree and Leaving Certificate (or its overseas equivalent).

The closing date for applications is Tuesday 14 March 2017.