

Excellent Career Progression opportunities in Tax – RBK Athlone

RBK is a leading business advisory and accounting Firm with clients in the mid to large corporate market in Ireland, and internationally through our affiliation with the LEA global network.

Opportunities

As part of RBK's continued development, we are delighted to announce new and exciting opportunities within our Tax Team in Athlone.

We are currently recruiting experienced professionals at Tax Senior to Assistant Manager level. If you are recently qualified or part qualified and working within Tax, we would be delighted to speak with you.

Rewards/Package

The roles offer the opportunity to:

- join a successful and dynamic team of tax professionals who work in a very supportive and collaborative team environment.
- develop your skills working on a varied and extensive client base.
- enhance your career.
- receive ongoing training and development opportunities along with an attractive salary & benefits package.

For a confidential discussion please contact Karen Buckley on 090 6480600.