Niche markets: Financial Services, International Trade and Government

How we do it: Designing Business & Compliance Solutions

Our Tax Team:

We are specialists in the provision of tax solutions to the international business (e.g. technology, e-commerce, life science) and financial services sectors.

We would like to speak to candidates with experience providing corporate tax compliance and advisory solutions to clients in any sector (experience in the international trade of financial services sector a benefit but not essential).

As a key member of the tax team you will support the Firm's Partners in building business for the Firm, leading and managing assignments won, and developing and managing teams.

What you will be doing:

You can expect to be a key member of our tax team providing the following services:

Tax Manager

- Manage the provision of corporate tax services to a challenging and varied client portfolio of companies including clients involved in international trade (outbound and inbound trade), structured finance vehicles, aircraft leasing and financing vehicles, and property vehicles.
- Advising on Irish domestic and international corporate tax matters.
- Develop and maintain business relationships and market profile, both in the wider market and through our international networks, with a view to winning business for the Firm.
- Develop your own career. With sustained levels of growth in our tax practice, you will have an excellent opportunity to progress, specialise and travel.
- Work as part of a multi-disciplinary team including tax, advisory and accounting specialists.
- Managing key client account relationships to provide strong supervision and oversight.

- Managing and leading a team of graduates, seniors and management in the provision of all services to clients.

Tax Senior

- Assist with the provision of corporate tax services to a challenging and varied client portfolio of companies including clients involved in international trade (outbound and inbound trade), structured finance vehicles, aircraft leasing and financing vehicles, and property vehicles.
- Advising on Irish domestic and international corporate tax matters.
- Develop your own career. With sustained levels of growth in our tax practice, you will have an excellent opportunity to progress, specialise and travel.
- Work as part of a multi-disciplinary team including tax, advisory and accounting specialists.
- Managing client account relationships to provide strong supervision and oversight.
- Assisting with the management and development of a team of graduates in the provision of all services to clients.

Who are we looking for?

- You are AITI / CTA qualified (or equivalent) or a qualified accountant.
- For the tax manager role you have at least 1 year post qualification taxation experience, with at least 4 years' experience in the provision of corporate tax services within professional services.
- For the tax senior role you have at least 3 years' experience in the provision of corporate tax services within professional services.
- You must have strong leadership skills and have a proven record in building and working with a team with the capacity and capability to deliver.
- Excellent delegation skills and proven ability to manage and develop junior members of the team is required.
- You will have excellent business development and relationship management skills, whilst still maintaining the ability to take direction from Partners and Clients.
- Excellent organisational and planning capabilities.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.

Key competencies:

Technical – a detailed knowledge of Irish and international corporate tax issues and extensive knowledge of AlphaTax is an advantage;

Initiative – ability to take the initiative, work with limited supervision (although, we will be there to support you);

Dynamism – desire to work in a fast paced environment with a highly energetic and motivated team;

Flexibility – willingness to adapt to varying and changing client demands; and

Attitude – motivated, hardworking and evidence of having excelled at something in your personal life to date.

Your development:

Education and personal development is key to our firm. We are committed to providing comprehensive business and technical training. This includes monthly in-house learning afternoons, twice yearly 2 day internal technical training and offsite hotel based training and planning days in July and November.

Remuneration:

Our remuneration packages are designed to attract and retain the best people as part of our team. We offer salary levels which are commensurate to each candidate's level of experience, competencies and role in the Firm.
