

Tax Trainee (CTA)

About Baker Tilly

Baker Tilly is the Republic of Ireland representative of Baker Tilly International, one of the world's leading networks of independently owned and managed accountancy and business advisory firms.

At Baker Tilly we provide a range of professional services including audit and advisory, transaction services, tax, corporate recovery, company secretarial and strategic corporate advice. We are a multi-disciplinary firm with a focus on mid-market, entrepreneurial, owner-managed and family owned businesses. With a high level of knowledge and technical expertise we have developed an insight into what makes businesses successful.

'Be part of the class of 2019'

Are you an enthusiastic business graduate looking for an exciting career in tax consulting? As a tax trainee in Baker Tilly you will join a rapidly expanding multi-disciplinary firm of Chartered Accountants. Our open-door policy means exposure to senior staff members in all areas of business and work at an early stage in your training.

This is an ideal opportunity for a graduate from a relevant academic background interested in building a career as a professional tax consultant.

What we offer students

- Competitive training packages with paid study leave
- Additional in-house training to help you succeed in professional exams and career
- Work with domestic and international clients across a range of sectors (technology, healthcare, retail, consumer markets, hospitality and entertainment, start up and inbound clients)
- Working with international entities and start ups and early stage companies

Location

Joyce House, 21/23 Holles Street, Dublin

Apply

Send cover letter and CV for the attention of Dearbhla Gallagher by email to careers@bakertilly.ie