
THE PROFESSIONAL'S GUIDE TO THE R&D TAX CREDIT,
KDB AND RELATED RELIEFS

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	xiii
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.....	xv
CHAPTER 1 R&D TAX CREDIT.....	1
1.0 Overview	1
1.1 Background to the R&D tax credit.....	3
1.2 Department of Finance review of the R&D tax credit	3
1.3 Prior to 2004	5
1.4 A multi-disciplinary approach required to avail of this relief?	5
1.5 Success of the R&D tax credit regime	5
1.6 What are “R&D activities” for tax purposes?	6
1.6.1 R&D tax credit – key features.....	7
1.7 Other R&D incentives.....	9
1.7.1 European Union funding	10
CHAPTER 2 HOW THE REGIME WORKS	11
2.0 Overview	11
2.1 Entitlement to claim.....	11
2.2 Calculating the R&D tax credit due	12
2.2.1 Accounting periods commencing before 1 January 2015.....	12
2.2.2 Accounting periods commencing on or after 1 January 2015.....	12
2.2.3 Phasing out of the base year	12
2.2.4 Some points to consider before calculating qualifying (group) expenditure on R&D	13
2.2.5 What is expenditure on R&D (i.e. eligible expenditure)?	13
2.2.6 Defining a “group”	14
2.2.7 The relevant period of the group	16
2.2.8 The threshold amount and threshold group (relevant for account periods commencing before 1 January 2015 only)	17
2.2.9 What happens if a company is a member of a group for only a portion of the relevant period?...	19
2.2.10 Calculating qualifying group expenditure on R&D	19

2.2.11	Allocating qualifying group expenditure on R&D to the members of the group	21
2.3	Claiming the tax credit	22
2.3.1	Claiming process	22
2.3.2	Advance opinion	23
2.3.3	Expression of doubt	24
2.4	How can the R&D tax credit be used? What's the real benefit?	25
2.4.1	Overview	25
2.4.2	Offset against corporation tax and cash refund mechanism	26
2.4.3	Order of offsets	29
2.4.4	"Above the line treatment"	29
2.4.5	"Key Employee" reward mechanism.....	35
2.4.6	Transfer of a trade – carried forward R&D tax credit (s766 & s766A)	38
2.5	Takeaway points.....	40
 CHAPTER 3 R&D ACTIVITIES		41
3.0	Overview	41
3.1	How to determine if an activity is qualifying R&D?	42
3.2	Systematic investigative and experimental activities	43
3.3	Field of science and technology	44
3.4	Types of R&D.....	45
3.5	Scientific or technological advancement	46
3.5.1	The meaning of scientific or technological advancement.....	46
3.5.2	That you must "seek" to achieve rather than succeeding in achieving advancement	48
3.5.3	What does not constitute scientific or technical advancement?	48
3.5.4	Competent professional working in the field	49
3.6	Scientific or technological uncertainty	50
3.6.1	The link between advancement and uncertainty	51
3.7	Determining when an R&D activity begins and ends	51
3.8	R&D activities – items to consider.....	52
3.8.1	Commercial project vs. R&D activity	53
3.8.2	Software development	54
3.8.3	Examples and case studies of eligible R&D activities within various industries	57
3.8.4	Activities that are not R&D activities.....	60

3.9	What sort of documentation/evidence needs to be maintained?.....	61
3.9.1	What documentation is required?	61
3.9.2	Revenue Guidelines – records required to be maintained to satisfy the “Science Test”	62
3.9.3	Should we maintain additional documentation especially for the R&D tax credit?	63
3.9.4	What about documentation for the base year?	64
3.9.5	What happens if I don’t have documentation?	64
3.10	Takeaway points.....	65
 CHAPTER 4 ELIGIBLE EXPENDITURE		67
4.0	Introduction	67
4.1	Overview of eligible revenue expenditure	67
4.2	Revenue expenditure.....	68
4.2.1	Overhead costs	69
4.2.2	Employee/staff costs	70
4.2.3	Materials used in R&D which are subsequently sold.....	70
4.2.4	R&D carried on as part of existing trade	71
4.2.5	Apportionment of expenditure	71
4.2.6	Third party costs	72
4.3	Evolution of Revenue practice in relation to overheads	72
4.3.1	‘Revenue Guidelines for R&D Tax Credit (Updated February 2011)’ published in February 2011.....	72
4.3.2	‘Revenue Guidelines for R&D Tax Credit (Updated December 2012)’ published in February 2013	73
4.3.3	‘R&D Tax Credit Guidelines (Updated January, March, April 2015)’	73
4.4	Ineligible expenditure.....	74
4.5	Capitalised expenditure	75
4.6	Plant and machinery	75
4.6.1	Qualifying for capital allowances	76
4.6.2	Qualifying for relief under s291A.....	76
4.6.3	How to claim P&M expenditure?	76
4.7	Outsourced R&D activities	79
4.8	R&D grant assistance.....	81
4.9	Pre-trading expenditure.....	82
4.10	Requirements to be met for the “Accounting Test”	82
4.11	Takeaway points.....	83

CHAPTER 5 EXPENDITURE ON BUILDINGS & STRUCTURES.... 85

5.0	Introduction	85
5.1	Summary of the building R&D tax credit.....	85
5.2	Key definitions	86
5.3	How to claim the R&D building credit.....	87
5.4	Claim for expenditure incurred over more than one accounting period	87
5.5	Buildings apportionment.....	89
5.6	Building or structure sold or ceases to be used for R&D activity	90
5.7	Takeaway points.....	91

CHAPTER 6 HOW REVENUE AUDIT R&D TAX CREDIT CLAIMS 93

6.0	Introduction	93
6.1	Is an R&D audit different to other tax audits?.....	93
6.2	Revenue’s appointed expert.....	94
6.2.1	Documentation	96
6.3	Notable changes in Revenue practice	96
6.4	Types of Revenue review and audit	98
6.5	Notification of Revenue review or audit	99
6.5.1	Informal request	99
6.5.2	Self review letter/ Aspect query letter.....	99
6.5.3	The formal audit letter – “Notification of Revenue audit – R&D”	101
6.6	Audit timelines and statute of limitations.....	102
6.6.1	Notification timeline.....	102
6.6.2	Audit timelines	102
6.7	Appeal process	104
6.8	Practical difficulties with R&D audits.....	104
6.9	Settlements with Revenue, interest, penalties and publication.....	106
6.10	Takeaway Points.....	108

CHAPTER 7 AVOIDING COMMON MISTAKES 109

7.0	Overview	109
7.1	The implications of getting it wrong.....	109
7.2	Common mistakes	109
7.2.1	Entitlement errors	110
7.2.2	Financial errors	110

	7.2.3 Scientific/technical errors.....	114
7.3	Takeaway points.....	115

CHAPTER 8 SPECIFIED INTANGIBLE ASSET
RELIEF AND ALLOWANCE FOR EXPENDITURE
INCURRED ON SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH.....117

8.1	Intangible asset relief.....	117
	8.1.1 Introduction.....	117
	8.1.2 What intangible assets qualify for relief.....	117
	8.1.3 Allowance.....	120
	8.1.4 Separate trade.....	121
	8.1.5 Restriction of relief.....	122
	8.1.6 Connected persons.....	122
	8.1.7 Revenue expert.....	123
	8.1.8 Advanced opinion and expression of doubt.....	123
	8.1.9 Acquisition of trade or business.....	124
	8.1.10 Anti-avoidance.....	124
8.2	Relief for expenditure on scientific research.....	124
	8.2.1 Section 764 trading deduction for revenue expenditure on scientific research.....	125
	8.2.2 Section 765 allowance for capital expenditure on scientific research.....	125
8.3	Takeaway points.....	126

CHAPTER 9 WHAT IS THE KNOWLEDGE DEVELOPMENT
Box ("KDB")? 127

9.1	Overview.....	127
	9.1.1 What intellectual property qualifies for the KDB?.....	128
	9.1.2 Qualifying assets.....	128
	9.1.3 Third category of assets for Small and Medium Enterprises ("SMEs").....	131
	9.1.4 Qualifying asset resulting from R&D activity.....	132
	9.1.5 Family of assets.....	133
	9.1.6 Derivative work or adaptations.....	133
	9.1.7 Location of intellectual property.....	134
9.2	Calculating KDB relief.....	134
	9.2.1 Nexus fraction.....	134
	9.2.2 "Qualifying expenditure on qualifying asset".....	135
	9.2.3 "Uplift expenditure".....	136

Contents

9.2.4	“Overall expenditure on qualifying asset”	136
9.2.5	“Profit of specified trade”	138
9.2.6	Notional royalty	140
9.2.7	“Qualifying profit”	141
9.2.8	Examples of “nexus fraction”	141
9.3	Making a claim	142
9.3.1	Patent pending	143
9.3.2	Off patent.....	144
9.3.3	Loss relief.....	144
9.4	Transitional measures.....	145
9.4.1	Rules for 1 January 2016 to 31 December 2019 ...	145
9.4.2	Rules from 1 January 2020	146
9.5	Audits	147
9.6	Anti-avoidance	147
9.7	Documentation.....	148
9.8	KDB and the R&D tax credit	149
9.9	Takeaway points.....	150
Appendix 1	Research & Development Tax Credit Guidelines	151
Appendix 2	Aspect Query Letter	191
Appendix 3	Revenue Panel Application.....	193
Appendix 4	Revenue Audit Letter.....	203
Appendix 5	Revenue Confidentiality Agreement.....	207
Appendix 6	Article from Irish Tax Review, Issue 1, 2016	209
Index		217