

Office of the Revenue Commissioners,
Personal Division, Compliance Branch,
Revenue House, Assumption Road,
Blackpool, Cork,
T23 W922,
Ireland

 (01) 738 3636

06 August 2019

Tax Return for 2018 (Form 12)

Dear Sir/Madam,

You are due to submit a completed 2018 tax return (Form 12) by 31 October 2019. This is required under section 879 Taxes Consolidation Act 1997 and authorised by the Inspector of Taxes named below.

If you complete the Form 12 online, the due date is extended to 12 November 2019. Please ensure that you file your tax return on time.

To access and complete your 2018 Form 12 online, please follow the instructions overleaf.

The online 2018 Form 12 does not provide for the return of Capital Gains Tax (CGT) details. You (or your spouse or civil partner) might have chargeable gains or losses in the year ended 31 December 2018. If you do, you will need to complete a separate CGT Return (Form CG1) and submit it to your Revenue office.

Note that tax law provides for both civil penalties and criminal sanctions for:

- failing to make a tax return
- making a false tax return
- facilitating the making of a false tax return
- claiming tax credits, allowances or reliefs which are not due.

More details on this are included on the Form 12.

Yours sincerely,

Patrick O'Connor
Revenue Commissioners