

International Tax Update

Speaker: Tatiana Kelly, Deloitte

Date: Tuesday, 7 March 2023

Time: 08.30 – 10.30

Venue: Zoom

Programme:

Time	Topic
08.30 – 08.35	Introduction and Opening Remarks	Chairperson
08.35 – 09.35	International issues including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Overview of the status of Pillar I• Update on the progress of Pillar II• Discussion of EU developments	Tatiana Kelly, Deloitte
09.35 – 09.45	Tea/Coffee Break
09.45 – 10.20	Domestic considerations including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Issues affecting the labour force• Enhanced reporting requirements and transparency landscape• Areas of focus in 2023	Tatiana Kelly, Deloitte
10.20 – 10.30	Q&A	Tatiana Kelly, Deloitte

Speaker:

Tatiana Kelly is a Senior Tax Manager in the Tax Policy and Technical Centre of Deloitte. She consults in-house on tax technical and policy issues with her primary focus being in the area of international tax developments, leads out on the preparation and coordination of relevant public consultation responses to the Irish Government and pre-Budget submissions and coordinates knowledge sharing within the firm on tax technical and policy matters. Tatiana is a regular contributor to tax related professional and academic publications and a member of the Professional Services Committee of the Irish Tax Institute.

She joined Deloitte in December 2021, having previously worked in the client-facing roles in other professional practices in Ireland and with Revenue Commissioners and also in the academic environment.

Tatiana has senior consulting experience in law and taxation in the area of International Taxation & Policy, Revenue Interventions, Global Mobility, Taxpayers' Rights, European Law and Company Law.

Tatiana is a Chartered Tax Adviser (CTA) of the Irish Taxation Institute since 2007.

Tatiana graduated from the NUI Galway with LL.B and from the University of Oxford with MSc in Taxation.