

Speaker Biographies

Sligo – Tuesday 15 May 2018

Rose Tierney is a Chartered Accountant, a Chartered Tax Advisor in the UK and is a Chartered Tax Adviser (CTA) in the Republic of Ireland. Having spent several years working in practice in the UK and Ireland, Rose established Tierney Tax Consultancy in 2004. The practice provides tax and VAT consultancy and compliance services to private clients, companies and individuals in the Republic of Ireland and UK and acts as a consultant to professional accountancy and legal practices on both sides of the border for tax and VAT queries arising within their client bases.

Limerick – Tuesday 22 May 2018

Colm Browne is a Chartered Tax Adviser (CTA) and a Chartered Accountant. He is Tax Director at PwC in Limerick and is a Council member of the Irish Tax Institute and Chair of the South West Branch of the Irish Tax Institute which meets regularly with Revenue at local and regional level.

Emer Hodges is a Chartered Tax Adviser (CTA) and currently a Tax Director with PwC Limerick, specialising in the area of employment taxes. She previously worked with EY for 14 years in their Dublin and Limerick offices and also spent a number of years with PwC Sydney.

Galway – Wednesday 19 September 2018

Laura Lynch is owner and principal of Laura Lynch & Associates, a tax and business advisory firm advising private and corporate clients on all aspects of tax, financing and structuring issues, including wealth protection, succession planning, cross border issues and tax efficient employee remuneration. She is a Chartered Tax Adviser (CTA), a Fellow of Chartered Accountants Ireland and has lectured extensively for the Irish Tax Institute.