

---

TABLE OF CONTENTS

---

Foreword by The Minister For Finance .....	v
Foreword by Irish Tax Institute President.....	vii
Editors' Introduction .....	ix

Chapter 1

What makes a good tax system? .....	1
--	----------

Dr Donal de Buitléir, Director, Publicpolicy.ie

1.1 Introduction .....	1
1.2 What is a tax?.....	1
1.3 Principles of tax design .....	2
1.4 International context.....	2
1.5 Incidence of taxes .....	3
1.6 Need for stability.....	3
1.7 Balance of taxes: OECD hierarchy .....	4
1.8 Tax incentives.....	4
1.9 Elements in the tax system .....	7
1.10 Conclusion .....	14

Chapter 2

Role of evidence in tax policy and tax expenditure evaluation .....	17
--	-----------

David Hegarty, Principal Officer, Economic and Budget Division, Department of Finance and Irish Government Economic and Evaluation Service (IGEES)

*Donal Lynch, Administrative Officer, Economic and Budget Division,
Department of Finance and Irish Government Economic and Evaluation
Service (IGEES)*

2.1 Introduction .....	18
2.2 Policy-making and evidence: a complex relationship .....	18
2.3 What evidence is used to inform tax policy? .....	21
2.4 The case of tax expenditure evaluation .....	26
2.5 Conclusions and future challenges.....	30

Chapter 3

A short history of corporation taxes in Ireland .....	35
--	-----------

Christopher Sanger, MA (Oxon), MBA, FCA, CTA, Global Tax Policy Leader - Partner EY

Aidan Walsh, Tax Partner EY - EMEIA FSO Tax

3.1 A short history of corporation taxes in Ireland.....	36
3.2 How does Irish corporation tax work? .....	40

3.3	Worldwide and territorial tax systems.....	42
3.4	Greater international focus .....	43
3.5	The European Union.....	44
3.6	Public influence .....	44
3.7	Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) .....	44
3.8	United States .....	45
3.9	International case law .....	45
3.10	Conclusion .....	45

Chapter 4

Taxing wealth: A challenge for policy-makers..... 51

Dr Martina Lawless, The Economic and Social Research Institute

4.1	Introduction .....	52
4.2	Reasons to tax wealth .....	53
4.3	Objections to wealth taxes .....	54
4.4	Wealth taxes in Europe.....	56
4.5	Household wealth in Ireland.....	59
4.6	Potential yield from a wealth tax.....	65
4.7	Conclusions.....	66

Chapter 5

Ireland's income taxation system: A social policy perspective..... 69

Dr Micheál L. Collins, Assistant Professor of Social Policy, School of Social Policy, Social Work and Social Justice, UCD

5.1	Introduction .....	69
5.2	Ireland's income related taxes in perspective .....	70
5.3	Social policy and the role of income taxes.....	73
5.4	Further challenges and conclusion.....	81

Chapter 6

Current challenges and opportunities in the international tax policy environment..... 87

Peter Reilly, BEPS Policy Leader, PwC

*Gary Tobin, Assistant Secretary, Tax Policy Division,
Department of Finance and Irish Government Economic and Evaluation
Service (IGEES)*

6.1	Introduction .....	87
6.2	The OECD BEPS project.....	88
6.3	The Irish response to BEPS .....	99

6.4	The US position .....	103
6.5	The UN and the position of the Global South .....	105
6.6	Conclusion .....	106

Chapter 7

The BEPS package: promise kept ..... 109

Pascal Saint-Amans, Director, Centre for Tax Policy and Administration, OECD

7.1	Background .....	109
7.2	The BEPS package .....	111
7.3	Expected impact .....	118
7.4	Whats's next .....	119
7.5	Concluding remarks .....	122

Chapter 8

The EU direct tax policy agenda..... 125

Declan Kelly, Financial Counsellor Permanent Representation of Ireland to the EU

Louise Heenan, Fiscal Attaché Permanent Representation of Ireland to the EU

8.1	Introduction .....	126
8.2	Short history of EU tax policy development.....	127
8.3	Role of the EU institutions - who they are and what do they do?.....	128
8.4	Institutions at the heart of EU tax policy development.....	129
8.5	The current EU tax agenda .....	136
8.6	The developing role of the European Parliament .....	141
8.7	EU tax policy horizon.....	142
8.8	Conclusion .....	143

Chapter 9

Irish tax policy for entrepreneurs and small and medium-size companies ("SMEs")..... 145

Michael Gaffney, KPMG

9.1	History and introduction .....	146
9.2	The tax regime generally for entrepreneurs and SMEs.....	146
9.3	Start up and growth of SMEs .....	148
9.4	Passing on the business.....	155
9.5	Tax policy for regional needs.....	157

Chapter 10*The potential of knowledge-based incentives ..... 161Peter Vale, Partner, Grant Thornton*

10.1	Introduction .....	163
10.2	Knowledge Development Box .....	164
10.3	Intangible asset regime.....	165
10.4	Research and development (“R&D”) tax credits.....	166
10.5	Transfer pricing .....	167
10.6	Tax treaties.....	168
10.7	Impact of BEPS .....	168
10.8	Importance of a robust legal system in the context of IP .....	169
10.9	What do other countries do? .....	169
10.10	Conclusion .....	170

Chapter 11*The Local Property Tax – A case study in designing and implementing a new tax..... 173Jean Kennedy, Principal Officer, Office of the Revenue CommissionersDr Keith Walsh, Principal Officer/Senior Economist,Office of the Revenue Commissioners and Irish GovernmentEconomic and Evaluation Service*

11.1	Introduction .....	173
11.2	Design of LPT .....	175
11.3	Implementing LPT .....	179
11.4	Outcomes.....	182
11.5	Lessons learnt .....	186
11.6	Post implementation.....	187

Chapter 12*Green taxation..... 191David Fennell, Tax Director, EY*

12.1	Historical background.....	193
12.2	Environmental taxation policy objectives .....	195
12.3	Direct taxation policies.....	197
12.4	What are the Irish environmental taxes? .....	198
12.5	Other taxes .....	206
12.6	How does Ireland compare to the EU average? .....	207
12.7	Air travel tax .....	208
12.8	Emissions trading scheme .....	209
12.9	What’s next?.....	211

Chapter 13*Ireland's indirect tax policy agenda ..... 215David O'Sullivan, DG TAXUD, European Commission*

- 13.1 Overview of indirect taxes ..... 215
- 13.2 Indirect tax policy agenda – the overall tax mix ..... 220
- 13.3 Indirect tax policy agenda – the EU angle ..... 221
- 13.4 Indirect tax policy agenda – using indirect taxes as instruments of policy ..... 225
- 13.5 Future challenges, risks and opportunities ..... 230

Chapter 14*Ireland and agri-taxation ..... 235Seán Bell, FCCA, Economics and Planning Division, Department of Agriculture, Food and Marine*

- 14.1 Budget 2014 announcement ..... 235
- 14.2 A brief history ..... 236
- 14.3 The agri-food sector ..... 237
- 14.4 The agri-taxation review ..... 238
- 14.5 The Agri-taxation Review – The Report of the Agri-taxation Working Group to the Minister for Finance and the Minister for Agriculture, Food and the Marine ..... 241
- 14.6 Budget 2015 ..... 243
- 14.7 Budget 2016 ..... 247
- 14.8 The future of agri-taxation ..... 249

Chapter 15*Ireland's anti-avoidance journey ..... 251Tom Maguire, Tax Partner, Deloitte*

- 15.1 Introduction ..... 252
- 15.2 What is tax avoidance from an Irish perspective? ..... 253
- 15.3 6 forces of anti-avoidance ..... 256
- 15.4 Conclusion ..... 267

Chapter 16*The importance of stakeholder engagement in setting tax policy ..... 271Olivia Buckley, Communications Director, Irish Tax InstituteCora O'Brien, Policy Director, Irish Tax Institute*

- 16.1 Introduction ..... 271
- 16.2 Why stakeholder engagement is important – the international evidence ..... 271

16.3 How to engage successfully with stakeholders..... 273

16.4 The progressive journey of stakeholder engagement in tax policy-making in Ireland..... 282

16.5. International tax policy – Irish stakeholder engagement.....283

16.6. The future journey – where to from here?..... 284

Chapter 17

The future of Ireland’s tax and economic policies as an agent for social change..... 289

Colm Kelly, Chair of the Foundation for Fiscal Studies

17.1 Introduction ..... 289

17.2 Ireland’s history..... 290

17.3 So what might we have done differently?..... 298

17.4 A high level methodology ..... 299

17.5 Summary and close..... 304

Glossary of Terms ..... 307

Index..... 311